

Article 1.       A DEEP PINK GAZE into the future in all its ghastly detail

glass vase with core of shame and casing of blush-shading from mild flush to deep blood-red, sealed by the application of tortuous asking. cylindrical neck, craning in the direction of away. ovoid body with flat part on which burdens and other articles are carried. glass holder a circular pedestal in the clasp of monstrous ideas: heads extending above rim, teeth bared, claws forming table rest.

Article 2.       PAIR OF GLASS BELLS (handheld) with summoning power of supernatural reach bell: a hollow cup of woe-betide-you-sound-the-distress-signal, with swelling heart that restricts itself to manual operation, sheathed in a decorous mesh of finely combed dreads. finialed in what could be a gesture of surrender, mesmeric rite or emphatic declaration, the handle expresses a request for selection. hidden inside, hooked on a strange rehearsal, the little tongue hangs credulously on its own melodious manoeuvring. when struck, both bells release a spell of eerie clarity.
